THE STATE ELECTION.

Returns as far as received indicates the re-election of Governor Austin and the entire republican State ticket. The Democrats have made large gains in members of the Legislature. The amendment are probably voted down. Full returns next week.

The Boston Times says: "A very amusing scene occurred in Water street yesterday, during the ceremonies of laying the cornerstone of the new postoffice. It had been announced that Mrs. Grant would occupy one of the windows immediately opposite the new building, and of course the crowd soon picked out one of the group there seated as the mistress of the White House. For two hours there was not really a 'sen' but a small pond of 'unhappy faces' toward the window and not a few could be seen pointing out 'Mrs. Grant' to their friends. Those in the building greatly enjoyed the scene, especially as they knew the President's wife was not in the building at all. She was temporarily the 'eyesore of neighboring eyes' is the wife of a well known merchant who finished the paper on which this is printed."

The assessment levied for street improvements make some property holders squeal. When Pearl street was closed last summer, there was a universal demand that it should be opened without delay. As soon as the unwieldy blunder of a horse could be brought to bear upon the obstruction, it came down, and now all that remains to be done is for the assessors to lay out the new street, and the assessors to lay out the new street, and the assessors to lay out the new street.

A Brave Irish Woman. The London dispatches record a case of womanly heroism which will probably give its possessor an enviable immortality of fame, like that of Grace Darling. It appears that a vessel was wrecked off Draghda, in plain sight of the professional life boatmen, who nevertheless refused to go to her assistance until the gale should abate. Already had six men been swept off from the shore in a small boat, and at the risk of her own life, saved that one man, still clinging to the wreck.

Among the ruins of the Western News Company's establishment, was found a curious memorial of the press. Where on immense stacks of periodicals and books were reduced to ashes there was found a single leaf of a quarto Bible, charred around the edges. It contained the first chapter of the Lamentations of Jeremiah, which opens with the following words: "How doth the city sit solitary that was full of people! how is she become as a widow! she that was great among the nations and princes among the provinces, how is she become tributary! she weepeth sore in her pining; and her tears are on her cheeks: among all her lovers she hath none to comfort her?" And that was the only fragment of literature saved from the News Company's great depot.

It is a sign of health, or convalescence, when men love simple pleasures and enjoyments that do not rush or roar, but distill like dew. The love of rural life, the habit of finding enjoyment in familiar things, that susceptibility to nature which keeps the nerve gently thrilled in her homelike nooks, and by her commonest sounds, is worth a thousand fortunes of money, or its equivalent.

An indignant "Barister" writes to the Times that in spite of the oratorical flourish of Garraun about the moment he touches British soil, etc., etc., the slave traffic between Tripoli and Constantinople, through the intermediate port of Malta, still goes on. The "Barister" saw five or six young female slaves at Malta on their way to Constantinople as a present to a Pasha.

A German girl named Kathi Roth, residing in Cincinnati, drowned herself in the Ohio river Wednesday. "Oh, God, do not condemn me, but take me up as Thy child," were the last words of a brief letter which is all that was left to bear testimony of her suicidal intentions. Unrequited love is supposed to have induced the rash act.

It is among the gossip Washington that Secretary Robeson is to leave the cabinet and be appointed Minister at Vienna.

Austin's Land Business.

From the Mower County Register (Rep.) Governor Austin testifies that the loan effected by him through President Clark, of the Lake Superior & Mississippi Railroad, was to enable him to enter government land in the Red River county at $1.25 per acre, to be held by him for a rise. Query: Whether the Governor of a State ought to, while acting as Governor, and receiving a comfortable salary for looking after the interests of the people, buy up large tracts of the public domain and hold them for speculative purposes? Query No. 2: Whether this is the best method of promoting immigration to our State and the occupation of our lands by actual settlers? Query No. 3: Whether the Republicans of this State do not now wish they had permitted Governor Austin to devote his attention exclusively to land speculation during the next two years?

Will General Grant insult men of honor and integrity in the republican party by giving them a leader a man whose alleged deeds should have consigned him to the penitentiary? asks Henry Ward Beecher's paper, the Christian Union, referring to Collector Murphy; to which Grant replies: "Yes, because he can do more than any other man, to help my cause in New York."

The gallant New York correspondent of the St. Louis Republic writes: "I was strolling along Broadway the other day, when the seraglio, fixed up with an imperial photograph brought me up against a small, sickly old fellow surrounded by a crowd of curious looking men on one side by a doctor and on the other by some other warlike-looking fellow. A few words were exchanged, and then the picture hung on Broadway—very ugly enough to stop a nigger funeral."

Recent arrivals from the new city of Morehead announce that work on the new hotel and railroad buildings is progressing rapidly. About twenty-five houses now form the nucleus of the rising city, of which some are wood, and others wood and canvas. The town of Fargo, on the west side, is also growing rapidly. A slight fall of snow was expected on Sunday.

What can be Done.

New York, Oct. 28.—Charles F. Connor states it can be clearly shown that Tweed and his associates fraudulently obtained from the Broadway bank, without the color of right, some $5,000,000. His recovery can be obtained from Tweed, unless interfered with by corrupt legislation within ninety days. Woodward was the corrupt agent through whom Tweed worked. An opportunity will be shortly given to show how warrants were obtained from McDonally's office. O'Connor does not believe Mayor Hall either had dollar or knew what was going on, but blames the Mayor for standing by others and acting as a shield after the facts became known. The burden of proof lies against Tweed. The engines of the law will be directed against him. If fingers will not leave he will be arrested, and will probably lose all his property. O'Connor's efforts will be to protect what is left, and prevent a recurrence of robbery; and he says Tweed hopes to get into the Legislature again, have more corrupt bills passed, go back to his office in the board of public works, and carry on his former corrupt transactions. This, O'Connor says, must be prevented. Tweed shall have all the investigation he wants.

The latest wrinkle at New York fashionable weddings is for a black page, in livery, to walk into church before the bride and groom, carrying a small white satin cushion, on which is embroidered a monogram in gilt letters, which he places in front of the altar for the couple to kneel on, and carries it out again at the close of the ceremony.

A convict in the south Carolina State prison took advantage of his position, under a disciplinary show bath, to die, and cheat the State of thirteen years and four months of time.

The Swedish government is preparing to colonize Spitzbergen, a group of islands in the Arctic ocean, of a somewhat larger area than Great Britain. Spitzbergen was discovered in 1553, and has never been inhabited, save by the crews of vessels, who, being elated by the discovery, have been forced to pass there the dreary Arctic winter. The cold is severe, and during three months of the year there is continual night.

A pistol duel took place in Charleston on the 27th ult., between Mr. J. T. Mackey, a justice, and Mr. W. J. Whaley, a reporter on the News. They both emptied their revolvers, but did no damage, though a ball from the justice's pistol came to rest on the earthy carter of an innocent paper boy. They were both arrested. The cause of the trouble is not mentioned.

Chicago received $150 in 'confederate' money from a Richmond philanthropist.

THE RESULT.

The smoke of battle has cleared away leaving the field, politically speaking, strewn with wounded candidates. Summoning up the result, we find that we have gained a substantial democratic victory, although party lines were, to a very great measure, ignored—Yet the only republican officer elected was Frank Hassenstab as County Treasurer.

The balance of the County ticket and also the Senator and the three representatives were elected by very handsome majorities.

Matt Hiss, made a very hard run for Sheriff, and is only some 70 votes behind his opponent Mr. Hecklin. Kroeseballe, [Ind. candidate] was distanced in the race.

Mr. Streukens also made a gallant run, but his opponent Mr. Hassenstab is very popular and had the advantage of being in office—such is in brief a retrospective review of the political result of last Tuesday.

OFFICIAL VOTE.—We will publish the official canvass next week in detail.

PERSONAL.—Chris. Ackerman and Julius Schaefer of Young America, were in town on Wednesday evening. H. J. Peck and E. Hainin of Watertown came on calls on Wednesday. Ernst does not seem to mind his defeat in the least.

R. R. BRIDGE.—The bridge across the Minnesota river on the Hastings & Dakota Railway was to be completed and ready for the rail to-morrow.

The bridge is a splendid structure and proves Mr. Chas. Feltz, who had charge of the work to be a superior man in his line of business.

The track we are informed will be laid to this town on Saturday next.

JORGENSEN'S CASTLE.—We visited this noted place yesterday and found him over run with business. If you want to see a neat, but strangely constructed building, call on Jorgensen the watch-maker, and he will show you not only his house but a fine stock of clocks and watches and jewelry—and sell you anything you want cheap.

PASSENGER COACH.—The first train, with passenger coaches attached, passed up the Minneapolis road on Wednesday. We understand the officers of the road and other citizens of Minneapolis were inspecting the road bed.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE.—The Administrator's sale, of the village property of the late Ezekiel Ellsworth, on Thursday last which was sold to pay debts and incumbrances against the same, brought altogether a little over $2,000. Mr. Geo. Warner was the auction purchaser.

BUSINESS.—Business will be attended to by the publisher of the Herald next week, election being over.

R. R. WAREHOUSE.—The large warehouse on the line of the Hastings and Dakota Rail-Way near the depot will be finished next week. It is thirty feet wide by one hundred feet long, and built in a very substantial manner. The lumber for the H. & D. R. R. depot is on the ground and work on the building commenced.

DRUIDS.—The "Minnesota Valley" order of Druids of this place installed the following officers last week:
F. Mackenroth, Ex: E.
F. Wommer, E: E.
F. Hemming, U: E.
F. Hassenstab, Sectr.
J. Weego, Treasr.
J. Ehrmanntrout, I. G.

TELEGRAPH.—The Minneapolis Railroad Company have erected a Telegraph line along their road, and we understand it is already in working order. We are marching along.

A four year old stallion named Ben Cummings distanced a field at a fair in Allegan county, Michigan, in 2:26.

William Thompson, the boy switch-tender who pleaded guilty to the charge of manslaughter for having caused the accident at Britt's switch, N. J., in July last, was sentenced to three months' imprisonment, and fined $500.

Carver County Election.

The election is over and some are rejoicing and other meditating over the result. Locally speaking the canvass was the most spirited ever made in this county. The official canvass has not been made, but the following gentlemen are elected by the following vote.

Senator, Col. L. L. Baxter, 500 maj.
Sheriff, Hecklin, 75 "
Treasurer, Hassenstab, rep. 175 "

THE CARS.—The first train of cars on the Minneapolis and Saint Louis R. R. arrived at the depot on Friday last at 12:45 direct from Minneapolis. Locomotive No. 9 and 10 as they neared the depot "blew their trumpets" till the larger portion of our inhabitants came from the tract to see what was the matter. The citizens furnished the laborers with free beer, 5 kgs and all had a good time generally. We noticed the following R. R. officials on board.

W. W. Hufferford, Supt. L. S. and M. R. R. Gen. Alexander, Gen. Tick-agent of the same. Gen. W. D. Washburn, Vice Pres. Minn. & St. Louis R. R. Col. J. Clough, Chief Engineer and Sam Bundock, Asst. It was a glorious moment for Col. Clough who has worked early and late in this enterprise since its beginning, a large share of the honor belongs to him.

The cars will be running to this place regularly in about 10 days. The lumber for the depot is being brought up and workmen at work. We have not heard yet who is to be agent, but presume it will be a Minneapolis man.

THE BRIDGE.—The bridge was swung into place on Sunday last at 3 o'clock under the Supervision of Alex. Ross, in the presence of a large number of people, everything passed off all O. K. It is a substantial and beautiful piece of workmanship, the track will now be laid to the junction and cars running to that point by Saturday this week.

NEW STORE.—H. H. Spencer of Louisville has opened a new store at the junction, and has a good stock, we predict, success for him.

DAILY MAIL.—A petition is being circulated for a daily mail from Hastings to Carver on the Hastings & D. R. R.

DOWN IN THE MOUTH.—The defeated Candidates.

LUMBER.—Andr. Schrimpf has a good assortment of lumber on hand which he is selling at old figures.

BY DOORS, SASH AND GLASS, go to G. A. DuToit Drug Store.

GOOD TIMES.—Frank Warner has been appointed Agent for a new Breach Loader manufactured in New Haven, Conn. any person wanting a splendid gun had better give him a call.

ELECTION.—Capt. Chas. Johnson, of Carver is elected to the house from this Dist. by 293 maj. over his republican competitor, Chas. Blomquist.

BONDS.—The Bonds voted to the R. R. will be issued at their next meeting they have been ordered printed.

SAB ACCIDENT.—A Swede man whose name we could not ascertain was accidentally killed on Wednesday last by the passing of a clay bank, which covered him up entirely. He was at work for Graham and McDougall, contractors on the H. & D. R. R. no blame is attached to them, it was an unforeseen accident. He was a good steady man, and leaves a wife and two children in poor circumstances.

GOOD TIMES.—The boys about town are having a good time with the Hand Cars on the Minn Road but Engineer Barckow wants it stopped.

At about six o'clock on Sunday morning, a fire was discovered over the furnace of the extensive mills of the Stewart Paper Company, at Brookville, Ind., and in a very short time the whole building was in ruins. The loss is about $25,000. It is supposed to have caught from the furnace.

A New Haven Church, an intoxicated man in the gallery listened intently while the soprano sang a solo, and after she had finished he stood up on the seat, waved his hat, and shouted, "Bully for you!" to the consternation of the audience.

The Philadelphia board of health reports an average of 14 deaths per day from small-pox during the past week, being a slight increase over the previous week.

Elections.

The result of the elections of the 7th inst. are now definitely settled. Gov. Austin is re-elected by 10,000 majority, also the balance of the State ticket by about the same majority. New York gives a republican majority of 17,000. Wisconsin also elected the republican ticket by 8,000 majority. New Jersey, Maryland and Virginia give large Democratic majorities.

For Ireland has rallied to the relief of the Chicago sufferers. Correspondents from all over the country, at all of whom men of different classes and creeds have come together to extend the hand of help to our unfortunate countrymen. Ireland is grateful. Her people remember the awful famine in the year 1847 when the United States poured its breadstuffs into Irish ports for the starving inhabitants of the island. Now she responds to the fullest extent of her power to aid Chicago. The action of Ireland calls to mind also the course of France. The French capital, notwithstanding the evils, sufferings and miseries she has undergone within the last twelve months, came forward with her purse to swell the contributions which in almost every class comes pouring in to help the afflicted of the Garden City of the West.

A Good Specimen.

Among the thousands of benevolent deeds done for the people rendered obsolete by the terrible conflagrations of last month, we have heard of none so particularly greater than that which came to the relief of the little hamlet of Steamville, in Putnam township, Mass. There is merely a factory, with its residences of one or two of the proprietors and two to three hundred people—the operatives and their families; but it is all there is to the place. They are all early to Mr. John G. Smith of this city, for distribution among the sufferers at the North, three large boxes of clothing and $800 in cash.

Death from a Bee Sting.

Mrs. Elizabeth Strang, wife of John J. Strang, a blacksmith doing business at the village of Lynville, ten miles north of Rochelle, met with a sudden death on Tuesday afternoon last, under very painful circumstances. She went into the garden to pick up some apples that had fallen from the trees, and while doing so was stung by a honey bee on her hand near by. She was stung in the temple, and the pain was at once so great she started for the house. Getting rapidly worse she lay down on the bed, and in less than five minutes was dead. Her face and head immediately commenced swelling and turning black, and when buried the following day she presented a frightful spectacle. Very dark naturally, her head had swelled to twice its natural size, and seemed to be a mass in the last stages of decomposition. She was a strong and rugged woman, and being stricken down to the floor of health by an instrument so unthought of, filled the neighborhood with a strange feeling of gloom.—Rochelle [ill.] Register.

Deep Plowing.

We spent a few days in Carver county recently, and we wish we could impress upon the farmers of that rich and fertile county the necessity of plowing their land deeper. We consider Carver county one of the best agricultural counties in the State. We believe that the farmers of that county are as well, perhaps better off than any other. In most instances the farmers are thrifty, but we believe they could increase the wheat crop several bushels to the acre if they would plow down deeper. The top soil is pretty well worn out. A few inches of the rich virgin soil brought to the surface by the use of a subsoil plow would accomplish wonders. Then instead of old soil it would be new. The black fertile soil of Carver county is two or three feet deep, and that which is a foot under the surface is just as good as that which lies on the top, and it is a curse when brought to the surface in the fall of the year, so that the action of the frosts of the winter and spring months could naturalize it, the land was as. We are satisfied that if the experiment were made the farmers would find it beneficial. But for that matter the system of plowing should not be confined to Carver county. In all the counties in the State where the soil is as same as it is to Carver county, the same should be observed. We hope it will come to general practice.

Not so Frosty.

Horace Greeley says that we have only an interval on one hundred days between the frosts of spring and those of the fall. Mr. Greeley is mistaken in this particular. He should have said one hundred and thirty days. Minnesota is pretty well north, but if it has any advantage at all it has this, viz: It is free from frost from early May to the last of September.

West Wisconsin Railroad.

From the Union Star and Times we learn that the track layers on the West Wisconsin Railroad are making good progress toward Hudson, so much so that it is now confidently expected that passenger trains will be running to Hudson by the 20th inst.

A Good Pork Crop.—A good corn crop makes a good pork crop. Probably the West never turned out a better crop of corn than this year's product. Especially is this so in this State. As a consequence we may expect further, pork of a very superior quality. We hope the price of pork will rule high. We believe it will be a paying product this year.

JUROR STARSWOOD, of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, has just decided a case in which he lays down the principle that even the majority of a congregation which withdraws itself from the denomination with which it stood connected, cannot lay claim to any part of the church property as against the minority that remains under the authority of the church.

Hastings & Dakota R. R.

The track was completed to our village on Wednesday noon, and the first train (a construction) made its appearance near 2 the Depot and was greeted by a general turn out of the citizens of Chaska, headed by the Brass Band. The Band played a number of tunes, and the locomotive, Mr. Lindelander and Schurz furnished the laid-road boys with a quantity of "lagers" which decidedly acceptable it we should judge by the way it disappeared. We shall review our Railroad prospects, soon.

Dr. Mead.—Dr. Mead's professional card appears in another column. We have heretofore spoken of the Doc, and now simply call attention to his card.

Commissioner Merchant.

We publish in another column the advertisement of the well known and reliable firm of Chas. B. Newcomb & Co. of Duluth and St. Paul, and would call the attention of our shippers to it, house, believing that they will find it to their advantage to deal with them. At all accounts grain shipped to Duluth via the Minneapolis & Lake Superior Road will be consigned to their care. Read their advertisement.

PERSONAL.—Col. Baxter left for Gloucester Monday to attend a term of the District Court in that county, this week. Mass. Ellsworth, near Northampton, Mass., who has been in our village for the past three weeks, left for home on last Saturday. A delegation of the Carver past of the "Grand Army of the Republic" visited our village this week on pleasure. They had a good time.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT.—We publish this week in another column, the annual financial exhibit between the Auditor and the Treasurer, receipts, disbursements, etc. Read the document.

FIRST SNOW.—The first snow of the season made its appearance last Monday. The fall was just sufficient to cover the ground.

LUMBER YARD.—We are informed that Hon. W. D. Washburn of Minneapolis, intends to establish a Lumber yard at this place of mammoth proportions. Mr. W. being the owner of several mills at Minneapolis, will be enabled to sell at very low figures. A good yard has been long needed here.

EXCURSION.—An excursion train passed up the Minneapolis Road on Tuesday, bound for the junction of that road with the Sioux City road. We understand the party had a general good time.
